Workshops for Performing Arts Groups

Business of the Business:

Option 1:

Taught by a leading New York City career coach or casting director, this session will give students the business skills for a successful career in theatre. The group will learn about audition procedures, agent submissions, head shots and resumes. The coach will also help students set personal goals and will select a few students to experience a “cold” reading in a positive environment.

Option 2:

Your group will be taken through the steps of how a Broadway show is put into production. Starting from scratch up until final casting and opening night, the group will learn the process of putting a show up on Broadway. They will take on certain roles in theatre and present a scene with all the theatrical aspects (actor, director, set designer, costumer, choreographer, etc). This is a hands-on workshop learning about the process of getting a show up on Broadway.

Educator Price: $22 per person

Flat Rate: $550.00

Workshop Notes:

- Workshop pricing is based on a group of 25 or more. If less than 25, refer to the flat rate.
- All workshops are 90 minutes except where noted
- Held in Broadway rehearsal studios
- Scheduled at your convenience
- Taught by a qualified teaching artist, casting director or career coach

Acting Audition:

The Acting Audition workshop gives students the knowledge of how important first impressions are when entering the audition room for the first time. This workshop will focus on the monologue, cold readings and stage presence. The session kicks off with an interactive group activity, and then works on specific material focusing on making choices while in an audition situation.

Educator Price: $22 per person

Flat Rate: $550.00

Workshop Notes:

- Workshop pricing is based on a group of 25 or more. If less than 25, refer to the flat rate.
- All workshops are 90 minutes except where noted
- Held in Broadway rehearsal studios
- Scheduled at your convenience
- Taught by a qualified teaching artist, casting director or Broadway performer

Open Call: (This workshop uses material prepared by students ahead of time.)

Go through the Broadway audition process and experience what a real audition is like. Six to eight students from your class perform either a monologue or a short segment from a song (with sheet music for the pianist) for a Broadway director, casting director or performer for constructive criticism in a positive environment. Students will learn how to talk to the pianist and present their material effectively and professionally, while the entire group gains an understanding of what is necessary to achieve the best audition. (2-hour session)

Educator Price: $26 per person

Flat Rate: $650.00

Workshop Notes:

- Workshop pricing is based on a group of 25 or more. If less than 25, refer to the flat rate.
- This workshop is a two-hour session.
- Held in Broadway rehearsal studios
- Scheduled at your convenience
- Taught by a qualified teaching artist, casting director or Broadway performer
- Students must provide their own material (16-32 bars of music or a one-minute monologue).

Step by Step:

Students have the opportunity to experience many different Broadway dance styles. This session can be taught by a performer from the show the group is seeing and feature choreography from that show. Other options for this workshop include a professional dance audition or a specific type of dance (tap, modern, hip hop, etc). There is always time for questions, pictures and autographs.

Educator Price: $22 per person

Flat Rate: $550.00

Workshop Notes

- Workshop pricing is based on a group of 25 or more. If less than 25, refer to the flat rate.

Acting Shakespeare:

Through simple script analysis, students demystify aspects of classical theatre. Shakespeare's plays were written in a time when directors were rarely used, so special attention was given to the clues and hints concealed within the writing. These "hidden directions" help performers to select acting beats and character intentions. Students will have the opportunity of participating in group acting exercises as well as volunteering for individual activities that make Shakespeare fun!

Broadway Instrumental Clinic:

Place your students directly in the world of a Broadway pit musician, playing for Broadway's best performers!

1st Option: Working with a Broadway musician, your students will sight read and prepare a special performance of a selected piece of Broadway music provided by Music Theatre International. After 90 minutes of work on the piece, your group will be joined by a Broadway performer who will discuss interpretation of the material and then perform it, accompanied by your students.

2nd Option: Arrive with prepared material of your choice to perform for a Broadway musician, instead of sight reading and performing with a singer. The Broadway musician will then guest-conduct, give constructive feedback, and help your students perform to the best of their abilities. Your group will be able to ask questions about playing in a Broadway pit, training, and how one makes the journey from playing an instrument for fun to becoming a professional musician. (2-hour session)

Educator Price: $40 per person

Flat Rate: $1600.00

Note: This workshop is based on availability; we will do our best to book all instrumental workshops at Carroll Studios. If by chance that we cannot book this space, we will notify you of the additional fee to hold this workshop at another location.
